United States District Court

for the District of New Mexico \square (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. \square (1) \square (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II— Statement of the Reasons for Detention I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that Defendant stipulates to detention at this time; Defendant remanded to custody of USMS. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
